How to Read the Maps

Typical Rural & Urban Roadway Sections

Large scale maps showing an aerial photo of the corridor overlaid with the wider, rural typical roadway section included as part of the 2001 Concept Plan are on display for your review.

- In response to community concerns expressed in 2001, a narrower, urban section is now being proposed to address noise, access, and encroachment concerns.

Please remember that the maps are for discussion purposes only, as the preliminary design of the roadway has yet to be determined. Please review the maps and share your thoughts with staff.
